

Resource Efficiency Index

The WRF Resource Efficiency Indices projects develop and create resource footprints to rank businesses respectively countries according to their efficiency of resources usage.

These indices will serve as benchmarks for companies and countries to compare their standing in resource usage and would also raise awareness on the issue of resource scarcity and incentivize stakeholders to adopt effective measures and instruments.

Find here progress made on resource efficiency index for countries

Find here more information about resource efficiency index for business